FOLLOW SIGNS

If you would like to take a longer more scenic route, from all directions go to Fairbanks Alaska, turn right at the first igloo, head in an easterly direction and then follow the Moose trail to Bozeman Mt. From Bozeman head south to Tombstone AZ, pull your pistol at the OK Corral and fire one shot in the air. Whichever direction the bullet finally lands follow that until you come to the swamps of Louisiana and find a 14 foot alligator that has had all its teeth pulled. His tail will be pointing in a NE direction and follow till you get to the Grand Ole Opry. After listening to the fourth Martha White flour commercial, look under the seat marked row 62, aisle J, seat number 6528 and you will find written instructions on how to get to the next page of directions. Once you have found this page, call BR549, listen for the operator as she will direct you from there. Once you have received these directions, proceed north until you come to Lake Michigan. Rent scuba gear, and take the L Train out of Chicago. Leave scuba gear on until you get to St Louis Missouri. Wear scuba gear and go up in the Arch. Once you get to the top of the Arch take off scuba gear and put on the costume that Buffalo Bill Cody wore the day the music died as they were singing Bye Bye Miss American Pie. Come down out of the Arch and take a bus to the Bowling Museum Hall Of Fame. It won't be a long trip as they will probably not let you travel very far in the Buffalo Bill Costume while on the bus. Exit the bus at the Bowling Hall Of Fame and proceed south to Sikeston Missouri. At Sikeston, turn right to Lamberts Café and there take off the Buffalo Bill Costume and put on the Ballerina outfit. Catch a few throwed rolls while dancing on your tip toes and then proceed NW in your new found TUTU. If you can avoid all the laughing and inquisitive stares, travel approximately 242.3 miles and you will come to Rt AA and then FOLLOW THE SIGNS.
